

BUSY WITH BIDS—Albert H. Drusemark, Frankfort village attorney, was pressed into service at the council meeting Monday night to read the bids submitted on the proposed Frankfort sanitary sewer system. The improvements is divided into two phases and there were 11 bids on one-laying the sewers—and nine on the other—building a sewage treatment plant. (Marvin Smith Photo)

Area Communities Plan Halloween Celebrations

All Hallows, or All Saints Day, and what we term, "Halloween, is Oct. 31. The children's "trick or treat" custom dates back to 17th century Ireland, when peasants sought, at the doors of the wealthy, luxuries for a feast. The idea of the householder forestalling a prankish "trick" by coming across with a "treat" of candies or cookies is, however, strictly our own.

In more recent years parties have been held to confine the efforts of youngsters in a wholesome celebration without destruction of property.

Throughout the area there are such parties in every community.

MOKENA

The children's annual parade in Mokena will be held Saturday evening Oct. 31. All children entering the parade must wear a mask in order to be eligible for a prize. The line of march will start at the Carpenter street public school at 7 p.m. and will wind its way to the new Mokena Volunteer fire station on Front st., just east of Midland st.

The parade is being sponsored by the Amvets' Auxiliary Post 183. Heading the parade committee is Mrs. James Marti assisted by Audrey Newton and Ann Gill.

The concrete floor of the new fire station will be completed by that time, but not dry enough to house heavy fire equipment. Judges will award prizes of silver dollars to those deemed best costumed.

Ry. Express Consolidates Area Agencies

Handling of express at Mokena and New Lenox is being discontinued and these agencies will be consolidated with the central agency of the Railway Express Co. at Joliet.

Free collection and delivery services within certain limits will be set up in the program.

Within the village limits of Mokena and New Lenox express packages will be delivered directly to door of the consignee.

Pick-up service for outgoing express will be available by calling the central agency in Joliet toll free. Information as to routes and schedules of delivery vehicles operating from the central agency will be publicly posted at each consolidated agency.

Any person interested may obtain further information by contacting C. B. Walker, superintendent Railway Express Agency, Inc., Rm. 11, Express Annex—Union Station, Kansas City, Mo.

$9.5 Million Bond Issue Cook County To Vote On Hospital Nov. 3

(CNS)—Voters will pass judgment on a $9.5 million dollar bond issue for Cook County hospital improvements at the November 3 judicial election.

The improvements would be confined principally to new hospital and laboratory buildings and rehabilitation of existing buildings. The program was recommended two years ago by a civic committee.

The largest project on the list calls for construction of a building to house the Hektoen Institute for Medical Research and also the hospital's morgue and department of pathology. This estimated cost is $5,125,000.

The Mokena Chamber of Commerce will give each child in the parade a candy bar and the Amvet Auxiliary will give in addition to the silver dollars a box of cracker jack. The Amvet Post will give each a bottle of pop.

FRANKFORT

The annual Halloween Fair and Fun Night will be held at the Frankfort elementary school, starting at 7:30 p.m., Friday, Oct. 30.

The biggest affair of the year, it is given by teachers and students, and has been an annual custom for the past 30 years.

The children will be dressed in costume and a program will be presented. Games will be played in the school gymnasium. The many booths set up will display articles made by the children. Like any

Issue $300,000 Of Home Permits At Orland Park

The Orland Park village board at its meeting this week gave approval to 21 building permits presented by Building Commissioner Robert Miller.

The permits were all for homes in Orland Park Hills housing development and carry a total valuation of approximately $300,000.

Mokena Carpenter Dies Suddenly; Rites Today

Lee Guthrie, 66, a carpenter, died suddenly Monday afternoon (Oct. 26) in his home at 276 E. First st., Mokena, apparently from a heart condition.

He had been working on an apartment building under construction on Mokena's Front St. and had reported at his usual hour Monday morning. He complained, however, of not feeling well and stopped to consult a physician.

Mr. Guthrie walked to the doctor's office and then home. He stopped at the home of a sister-in-law, Mrs. Jacob Barenz, which is across the street from his home and asked her to see him home. He succeeded in getting across the street under his own power and into the living room. He sat down in his arm chair and then slumped over—dead.

Born in Richland Center, Wis., March 26, 1883, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Sam Guthrie, he moved to Chicago after his first marriage where he worked with the Reliable Packing House. A few years

Sandburg Board Sells $310,000 Of Building Bonds At 4.2341%

The Carl Sandburg high school board has sold $310,000 of building bonds to John Nuveen & Co., Chicago, at an interest rate of 4.2341, the lowest submitted by any of the four firms submitting bids. The rate is well under the 4.50 percent limit approved by the voters on Dec. 8, 1958.

The bonds are to defray costs of the addition to the school plant. All of the structural steel of the addition is in place and the rest of the work is reported progressing at a steady rate. Special emphasis is being placed on construction of the swimming pool.

Finances occupied much of the board's time. It was brought out that delay in the disbursement of taxes due the school district may make it necessary to sell tax anticipation warrants to meet regular bills. To that end the board has authorized the sale of $300,000 of such warrants for the educational fund and $50,000 for the building fund. If the taxes come in, of course, the warrants will not be sold. Disbursement of first-half collections are approximately five months late.

The teachers salaries schedule committee submitted a recommendation to the board that a portion of the state aid money be used for teachers' pay. The board has adopted a revised salary schedule for teachers, effective Feb. 20, 1960, under which the beginning salary for a holder of a bachelor's degree is to be $4,650 and the maximum will be $7,025. The schedule for those with a master's is $400 above the rate for a bachelor's degree.

There are 14 steps in the salary schedule, which means 14 years to pass from the minimum to the maximum in basic pay. An automatic raise comes every year. New limits can be fixed by the board from time to time if and when conditions and finances warrant such action, it was explained.

Supt. W. O. Fisher presented a study of salaries paid clerical help in the metropolitan area and recommended a salary schedule for office personnel. The board did not act on the proposal at the Oct. 12 meeting.

Hold Judicial Election On Nov. 3

On Tuesday, Nov. 3, at a judicial election, five judges of the Superior Court and one in the Circuit Court will be elected.

For judges in this county election, the Republicans have slated four Chicago candidates and two from the county towns.

The Democrats have slated six Chicagoans, including four men currently on the bench of Chicago's Municipal Court.

Six judgeships are contested. Incumbents running for 24 places on the Superior bench are assured of reelection by appearing under both party headings. Ten are Republicans.

G. O. P. nominees with contests are Judges Joseph P. Emmel, Burton M. Bergstrom, and Harold C. Woodward, who hold appointments of less than a year, and Attorneys David F. Matchett Jr., George S. Barnes, and Joseph Fisher.

Fisher seeks the single Circuit court vacancy, opposed by Acting Chief Justice Joseph J. Drucker of Municipal court, a Democrat.

Democratic nominees in Superior court contests are Municipal Judges William W. Daly, Erwin J. Hasten, and Fred W. Slater, and Attorneys Casimir Griglik and David A. Canel.

Voters outside of Chicago will also vote on a 9.5 million dollar issue for improvements at County hospital.

Voters in Chicago will vote on 66 million dollars worth of bonds for various city projects, besides the hospital issue. All precinct and district polling places in the county will be open from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Frankfort Council Studies Bids On Sewer Project

The Frankfort village board opened bids on its proposed sanitary sewer system and turned them over to its engineer, Robert Hamilton of Joliet, for compilation and report.

Hamilton told the board he should have his report ready by Monday night—when the trustees will hold their regular meeting—so it is quite probable the contract will be awarded at that time.

Twenty bids were submitted in all—all on the installation of the sewer mains, and nine on the sewage treatment plant. The board and engineer were well pleased with the number of bidders.

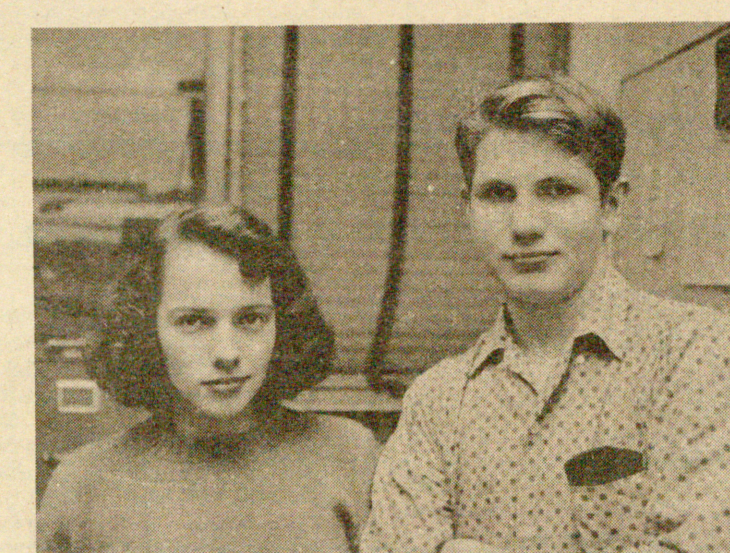

Hamilton said that the apparent low bids were less than his estimate of the probable cost of the improvements.

The apparent three lowest bidders on each of the two contracts were asked to submit their qualifications, references and experience to the engineer.

Apparent low bidder on the sewer end of the project is Blaine Saxton of Mokena. He offered to do the job for $217,579.92. Next closest figure was $218,580.15, submitted by D'Andrea Construction Co., Joliet, and third was Hulett Corp. of Oak Forest with a bid of $225,919.59.

The apparent low bid on the treatment plant was submitted by Gaskill and Walton, of Crete, in the sum of $167,290. If the slider screen is omitted, as provided for in the first of numerous alternates, his next basic bid would be $162,740, and Hamilton said this screen could be eliminated without affecting the treatment program.

The next two bids on the treatment plant were made by Wigert Construction Co., Franklin Park, $173,668 and Shamrock Engineering, of Gary, $174,153. These two figures are basic bids and the allowance for the deduction under the first alternate have not been made. However, such deductions would still have left both well above the basic figures of Gaskill and Walton.

OUTSTANDING—These two Lincoln-Way students, Kay Van Rheeden Frankfort, and James Lakin, New Lenox, are members of the debating team of the New Lenox high school. Last Saturday they took part in the National Forensic Council session held in Aurora West high school. James was listed as one of the outstanding members of the house of representatives, scoring 11 points out of a possible 15 in the discussion of various subjects. Kay was also acclaimed, having made four out of a possible six points. The National Forensic Council is set up after the U. S. Congress. (L-W PHOTO)

The other bids, all basic, on both contracts, were:

Sewers
Santry Co., Oak Lawn, $235,563.
V&S Const., Addison, $255,987.
Peter Ciccone, Chicago, $259,850.
Loring Const., Joliet, $264,634.
John Mackler, Chicago Heights, $271,751.
Wheaton Sewer & Water, $287,819.
Azzarelli Const., Kankakee, $296,309.

Treatment Plant
Mancini & Ventrella, Chicago, $336,427.

Lindblad Const., Joliet, $174,352.
Hasse Const., Calumet City, $178,880.
Colby Erickson, of Wilmington, $184,282.
Harry A. Thompson, Chicago, $188,000.
R. M. Oury Pools, of Wheaton $195,179.
Ryan, Inc., Janesville, Wis. $198,000.

If the contracts are let Monday night work can be started yet this fall, unless the weather turns severe, it was said.

Hold Booth Festival At Frankfort

The annual Booth Festival of the Joliet Sub-District, sponsored by the Senior Methodist Youth Fellowship was held this year at the Frankfort Methodist church Sunday afternoon.

This is the annual collection of commercial canned goods which are given to the Rosecrance Home for Boys in Rockford, and the Peek Home for Children at Polo, Ill.

About 250 young people were present from area churches. The Rev. James Parker, pastor, and sub-district youth director, officiated at the program. The Rev. Paul Stafford of Rogers Park Methodist church was the principal speaker, his topic, "The World Blesses". The devotions were given by the Trinity Methodist church, Joliet. Lucieon was served by the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Frankfort church.

Each group makes a house to house collection of canned goods in their own communities. A 250 ton truck was required to haul the amount collected.

A play, "The World We Live In" was presented.

Change Time And Place Of Orland Fire Dept. Dance

The Orland Park volunteer fire department announces that its annual fall dance, which had been scheduled for Nov. 21 has had to be postponed until Dec. 5, because of circumstances beyond its control.

The original plans called for the dance to be held at Sanger hall in Tinley Park. There has had to be a change of plans, however, and the dance will be given now Dec. 5 at the Goodings Grove hall, 143rd and Bell road.

WITCHES AND GOBLINS are busy now warming up for their annual appearance on Halloween which this year will fall on Saturday. The date for All Hallow's Eve is always the same, Oct. 31, because All Saints Day is one of the fixed feasts that falls on Nov. 1. It was not always so but it's been that way for a long time. These corn shocks were located north of Mokena, and incidentally in this mechanized age corn shocks are getting very difficult to find except on an easel. But these are the real McCoy. The witch and moon are by courtesy of Macbeth Division, Wizards and Sorcerers Ltd. (Marvin Smith Photo)

3 Lincoln-Way Debate Teams In Turnament

Lincoln-Way Community High school will send three debate teams to the Lyons High school of La-Grange "warm-up" debate tournament on Saturday, Nov. 14.

The Knights will have a team in each of the following three divisions:

Varsity, sub-varsity, and novice (beginning).

This will open a seven tournament schedule for the Lincoln-Way varsity team.

The annual Lincoln-Douglas debate tournament will have its beginning at Lincoln-Way Jan. 29 and 30, 1960. It will become an annual affair with a traveling trophy.

Kay VenRheeden, Mike Tate, James Lakin, Dennis Porich and Betty Lehmann are the five members of the squad who are under consideration of the varsity positions by coaches.

VanRheeden, Lakin, Porich, and Lehmann represented Lincoln-Way at the SW Suburban speech festival for the first Lincoln-Way debate team.

Homer

Fire Dept. Auxiliary To Meet At School On Monday

BY Elizabeth Anderson

The Homer Fire Auxiliary will hold its regular meeting Monday evening, Nov. 2, at Homer Consolidated school. The group is holding sewing meetings each Tuesday in homes of members. The meeting this week will be at Mrs. Frank Paul's on Cedar Rd. On Nov. 3, they will be at Mrs. Earl Burnworth's on Bruce Rd. These are all-day meetings, or one may attend any part of the day. They are busy making toy monkeys for sale. These will be on display at the breakfast which the ladies are planning to hold in Homer Church dining room the morning of Nov. 17.

The Wayside Workers' Circle of King's Daughters will meet at Homer Church the afternoon of Nov. 5 at 1 o'clock with Mrs. George Burcham and Mrs. James Elvig as hostesses. Reports of the county and state conventions will be heard.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Johnson of Spring Creek Rd. are the parents of a daughter born Oct. 16.

Frank Milne was a business visitor in Walnut Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shepherd Sr. were visitors in the home of her brother, Charles Stafford of Lemont, last Sunday.

Mrs. William Mergler and the George Burchams attended the wedding of Mrs. Mergler's nephew Kenneth Wilson, in Chicago Saturday evening. The groom's mother was formerly Beatrice Rudland of Homer.

Jerry Moravec spent last weekend with a boy friend in Chicago.

Mrs. Walter Konow who underwent surgery for cataracts at Silver Cross Hospital last Friday, is recuperating at the home of her sister, Mrs. Kate Wies, 151st St. Mrs. Richard Wyler and daughter's Leslie and Kaye of Morton Grove were last Sunday afternoon visitors at the senior Willard Rowley's. Mrs. Wyler is the former Ruth Marie Savage.

The Darrell Shepherds are remodeling and enlarging their home on Bruce Rd.

Don Waldvogel has been called to serve on jury in November.

Mr. and Mrs. John Loucks have returned from Florida where they visited their daughter, Mrs. James Springer and family.

Kenneth Carroll returned home Friday from Silver Cross Hospital where he was taken by ambulance early Thursday morning following an auto accident in which his car went out of control and rammed a tree on Rte. 7 about three miles east of Lockport. At the hospital he was treated for head and hand injuries and held for observation until Friday. He is in good condition now, but his car is a total wreck. He believes he

The P.F. group of Homer Church had a hayrack ride and Halloween party Saturday evening. The church dining room was appropriately decorated for the season and the young people of Rosemoor church, Chicago, were their guests.

Mrs. John Hollister's name was omitted from those who attended the Association meeting at Brazzil, Ind., last Saturday. The meeting was held in a well kept and hospitable rural church near Brazzil. A committee of three, of which Rev. Elvig is one, was appointed to organize a "Church at Large" for the benefit of those persons who wish to belong to a Continuing Congregational Church but have none established in their area. Plans were also discussed for a Youth Retreat to be held during the Holidays for the young people of the Association.

Mrs. Galen Holloway, leader, and members of the Country Charms 4-H Club are very grateful to the community for their hearty support of the recent Follery support of the recent Roller Skating party which was a benefit project for the 4-H Fair Grounds at New Lenox. The affair netted the club nearly $300 all of which has been turned over to the 4-H Junior Fair Association.

The Country Charms held their regular meeting Friday evening, Oct. 16, at Audrey Brown's home on Hillcrest Rd. with Cindy Blum and Connie Elshire acting as hostesses. Bonnie Mlynarik presided and Becky White, Kathy Zander and Carol Nordstrom gave reports. Kathy gave a demonstration of "How to Make a Quick Coffee Cake." Linda Ward was appointed reporter and Audrey Brown, recreation chairman. The next meeting will be Nov. 6, in the Brown recreation room. Meetings are held the first and third Friday of each month.

The Homer School club voted at its October meeting to use the landscape extension service offered by the University of Illinois. From pictures, a scale drawing of the buildings and school grounds and suggestions from interested people, Harley Kemmerer of the University will plan the landscaping of the school.

When the plan has been approved by the architect, the club and the board, it will be posted for the public to look over, and voluntary donations of trees and plants can be made.

The public is invited to send to the school any suggestions it may have which might help Kemmerer in planning the best landscape possible for the school.

Teenage Diets Deficient

It would seem that the American teenagers are slowly but surely starving to death.

This may come as somewhat of a surprise to those who have watched youngsters upon release from school. Apparently famished they are compelled to ply themselves with hamburgers, or hotdogs, or both--washed down with milkshakes and cokes to recruit strength enough to get home. Another snack there usually will sustain them until dinner is served.

One, possibly two lunches before bedtime gets them thru until morning.

On the surface it would appear there is little need to worry about teenagers getting enough to eat. It seems, however, that the problem is not the quantity of provender consumed but the nature of it.

From reports received "the current school year is witnessing a nationwide educational program designed to give high school students a better understanding of nutrition and good eating habits."

To this end a "Youthpower project" has been launched by the National Food Conference, the conference composed of a voluntary committee of food and allied associations which produce, process, distribute and merchandise America's food supply from farm to the table. The president of the American Farm Bureau Federation is chairman.

Studies show, the committee reports, that the diet patterns of teen age boys and girls reveal improper eating habits are contributing to alarming nutritional difficulties.

Fifty percent of teenage girls do not get enough protein and iron, according to a University of California study.

It goes on to reveal that following age 12, the intake of adolescent girls in total calories, protein, calcium, iron and other minerals and vitamins decline substantially below recommended levels and the downward trend continued in adult life.

The University of New Hampshire study shows 20 per cent of teenage boys are low in calcium; 10 per cent in iron and vitamin A; 20 per cent in thiamine and 40 per cent in vitamin C. A Connecticut Experiment Station study says that teenage eating habits tend to become poorer with age.

Parents report that it is difficult to prevail upon teen sons and daughters to eat balanced meals and are heartily in favor of getting help on the subject from the schools. It would seem that most teens are frankly skeptical parental advice on food habits, but will accept recommendations from their teachers.

"I don't know," sighed a mother of our acquaintance, "whether my youngsters believe I have over purchased on certain items and so recommend their consumption just to get rid of them or they figure I just plain don't know what I'm talking about. But let a teacher make the same suggestions and if they aren't on the table at the next meal then I must be holding down the grocery bill at their expense."

This Youthpower group appears to be getting up steam and plan to have a nationwide congress next February to which high school students from all sections of the country will be invited.

There seems to be no question but that proper diet has a pronounced effect on health, mental as well as physical.

The haphazard eaters referred to at the beginning of this piece illustrate the point that the Youthpower committee would make. A diet that is grossly deficient is also dangerous, and it is this situation the group would correct. May it be successful.

and snow strike. Fishermen say the fish have already moved into deep water in anticipation of an unusually cold winter.... but there is no word yet from Medicine Hat, one time bad-weather capital of North America.

Big Turnout Of Parents Frosh Night

A. Hunter Chapman, Lincoln-Way high school principal, reported, "72% of the freshmen parents turned out for the annual freshman parent conferences for an all time high."

"We were fortunate to have had 50% in the past at these conferences. We at Lincoln-Way think this is a good sign and are expecting much from this freshman class."

The FPC is really a progress report on the freshman. The faculty members' reports the grade situation, deportment, and other factors to the parents. Both then discuss ways of improvement and the faculty member answers other

Letters To The Editor

Dear Sir:

As a member of the Southlands Property, Owners, Association, living in the unincorporated area of the McIntosh subdivision, I want to publicly thank Carl Bormet the Orland Township road commissioner, for blacktopping two of the streets in our subdivision.

These streets were paved for us with no assessment whatsoever and next year we have been promised that the remaining streets in the unincorporated area will be paved.

We appreciate the efforts of Carl Bormet in making this possible, and are very grateful in being able to obtain extensive public improvements with no assessments.

On Second Thot

BY GLENN F. LOGAN

These are golden days. Nature, always lavish in her display of fall colors, has a midas touch in her artistry this autumn.

Gold, with all its various shades and hues, dominates the foliage pattern this autumn, producing a living canvas that is breathtaking in its beauty.

The sumacs, the purplish red, of the wild plumb, poison ivy and the mixture of greens, carmine and russet of the oaks add a splash of brilliant color to the wooded countryside but the dominant color is gold.

The poplars of gold, and the aspens of gold. And the towering maples of pure yellow gold. The willows of green gold and the golden bangles that once were leaves on the locust trees. The hickories of yellow and brown gold; the walnuts of green and saffron gold, and the majestic elms, which usually wither brown and flutter quickly to earth, are a lovely pale gold, their splendor enhanced by the golden sun or October.

Yes, nature's canvas is now all complete and the glory of autumn lies over the land.

One hates to have October go, altho this year it was not the month is usually is. Clouds and rain have prevailed on too many days that should have been blue skies and sunshine.

October is the time for Indian summer but this fall we have been short changed. The hazy, warm days, with the dust notes dancing in the sunshine and the drifting webs, have been few and too far in between for one to put his finger down on the days and dates and say--This was Indian summer.

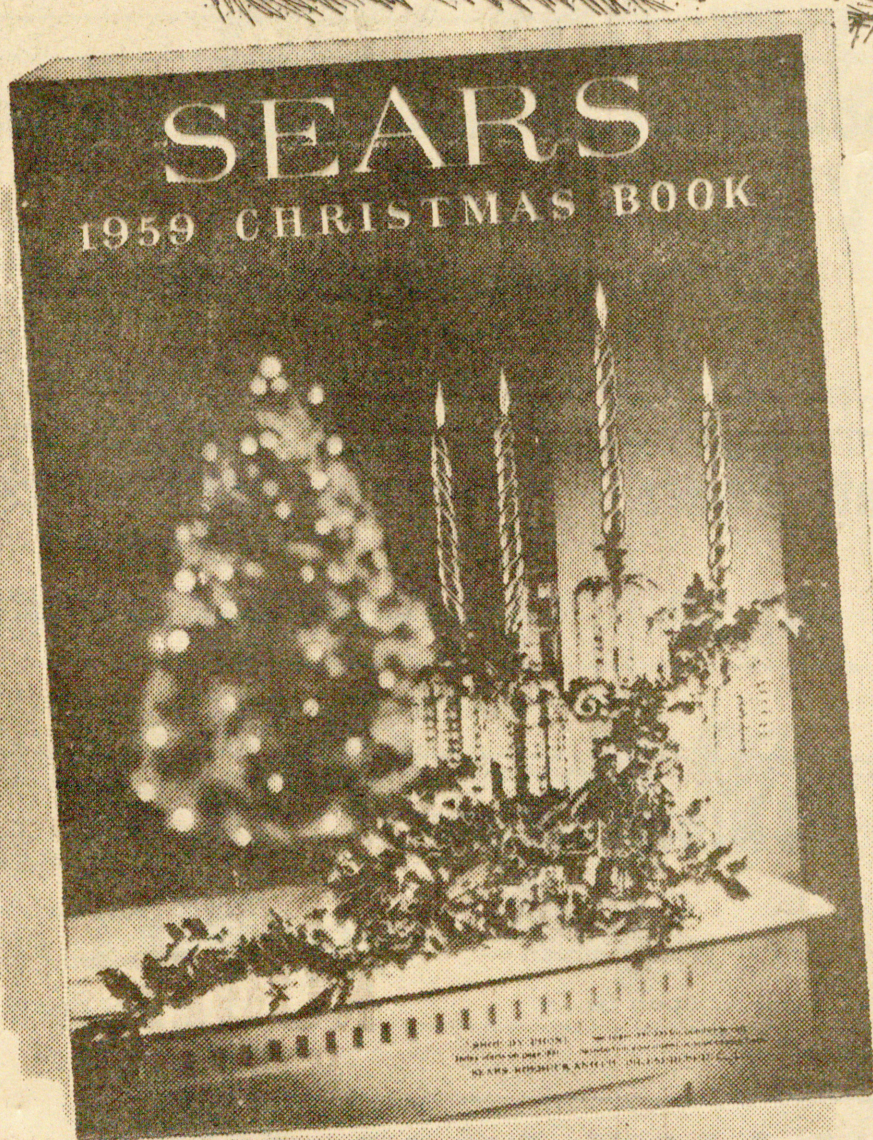

The floating webs--they carry spiders moving into new neighborhoods, Roland Eisenbeis of the Cook County forest preserve explained--came early this year.... in September.

Perhaps the spiders figure the coming winter will be a severe one and want to get their new homes snug and in order before the cold

Business & Finance

BY MAURICE P. ANGLAND

Delay in settlement of the steel strike aided in creating a hesitant stock market for past few weeks. Steel shortages will be difficult problems for some firms for balance of the year. Fourth quarter profits in some lines will be less than expected a short time ago and some expected dividend increases will be delayed.

General business activity is expected to rise to good level and continue this pace well into 1960. A number of the investment services are recommending longpull attractions of good grade common stocks, but advising care in their selection.

A survey of 1600 financial institutions discloses that six of the thirteen most widely held issues were oil stocks. In order of popularity they are: Standard of New Jersey, Texas Oil Co., Socony Mobil Oil Phillips Petroleum, Gulf Oil and Standard of California.

For about two years the oil stocks have consistently lagged behind the general market. Those favoring the oils have, in general, six factors on which they base their preference.

1. Growth: (a) Increasing need for energy due to increases in population as well as increasing standards of living. (b) Need for oil due to increasing industrialization and mechanization of present industrial processes and this one a world wide basis. (c) Estimated 1967 daily consumption of petroleum is expected to be 56 per cent above 1957 and 206 per cent above 1947 consumption due to well extended position as international producers and refiners as well as distributors, American firms are expected to benefit from this increase.

2. Ample Reserves: American firms have huge reserves of both oil and natural gas. Constant explorations are bringing in new sources of supply. The first well was brought into production in the northern Yukon. The Yukon is thought by a number of oil men to be the world's largest oil field. The first commercial scale well has been completed in the Sahara Desert.

3. Natural Gas: Natural gas is considered to be the purest form of energy ever discovered. Between 1950 and 1957, the U. S. consumption of natural gas grew at the average rate of 10 per cent yearly. This rate is expected to continue and possibly increase as pipe line facilities open more areas as consumers and also suppliers of gas.

It is reported that 95 per cent of all cooking in the U. S. A. is done with gas. It is also reported that about 70 per cent of new construction is designed for natural gas heating and an additional 20 per cent designed for oil heating. Gas also used in producing electric power; as a raw material in the drug and chemical field; and in many minor uses.

4. Petrochemicals: There are an estimated 4,000 petrochemicals and in 1957 the petrochemicals accounted for an estimated 55 per cent of total dollar value of domestic chemical production.

5. Lack of Economical Competition: Theoretically, atomic energy will replace other fuels, but this is in the distant future. At present a 75 horse power reactor for use in an automobile would require shielding weighing about 27 tons or more than the motor could full. Military experimentation will undoubtedly reduce costs of total operation, but this is some time in the future. The first nuclear ship N. S. Savannah is not expected to break even as a profit venture, but is valuable as a re-

PICK BRAVES OVER FLOSSMOOR

Evergreen Park May Prove Tough Foe For Sandburg Crew

Evergreen Park poses a threat to the front running Eagles. Evergreen has beaten Oak Lawn, by the same score that the Eagles did. The Mustangs have definitely been a down team over the past few weeks. But they proved can be real tough. They beat Lockport and Oak Lawn on successive weeks.

Bremen will play to a large homecoming crowd and should find the Vikings of the Homewood-Flossmoor a rather easy task. Certainly, it will be much easier than the trip to Park Forest last week.

The Braves have come right along with the expert handling of Larry Callan, coach.

Callan says of his boys, "They don't know what the word quit means." It seems that Larry is quite correct. The Braves have appeared to be out of the struggle for the Conference crown on a couple of occasions, but they have come back in to contention every time.

Last Saturday, Bremen showed plenty of power and ability as they led the Rich Rocket through the entire ball game only to have the Rockets fumble to a 10-yard touchdown and the victory, 19-18.

Homewood-Flossmoor has not been able to win in the conference, but have shown on some Saturdays the ability to play good football. They will be seeking a first win again this week.

It seemed that the Vikings had the Knights on the run, 6-2 last week--that is until the last few minutes of the final quarter. Then Lincoln-Way swept in for two quick touchdowns.

The Vikings have shown early game greatness at different times, but don't seem to have the stamina to carry on to victory. Even when the Eagles whipped them 38-6, for three quarters it was a rough and rugged battle.

The Homecoming crowd should be treated to a display of running and passing from its favorites. Rich Norbut comes closer to the Conference scoring title. He added a pair of touchdowns in the Rich contest. Norbut missed the bulk of the first two contests that the Braves played. So his touchdown spurt has been rather exciting.

Norbut is the explosive threat in the Bremen running attack. John Mannaioni continues to develop into a fine running and passing quarterback.

The Braves again were weak on pass defense and that is one way in which the Rich Rockets make plenty of ground. It was the screen pass that hurt Bremen. Homewood-Flossmoor will not be running through a getting tougher Bremen line.

Sandburg's spirited eleven has shown sparks of "great" class in its all conquering four game skunk since the 12-0 loss to the Rich team. Devine has turned out a not to momentary explosive team, but he has turned out a team that knows football and has played it the 48-minutes.

Carl Sandburg is due for a high-gear week-end after last weeks toughy with Oak Lawn at Orland Park.

However, John LePore and company will not be a soft touch as Homewood-Flossmoor, but will be a rugged customer. In fact, the Mustangs can, on a given day beat, and, make trouble for any team in the Conference.

The Mustangs led the conference at the outset with a 2-0, mark and are spilling to smack a contender down at this time. Sandburg will find the Evergreen team ready and rugged for this coming Saturday's battle.

Jim Jeffries looked far more like his old self last Saturday, even in the mud. When Devine's backfield is healthy and strong, it is a difficult one to stop. Joe has developed a find group of back--from seniors to sophomores--so there will be boys to hear about in the season to come from Sandburg.

No team has crossed the Eagle goal line more than twice in one game.

The Rams scored twice on the ground when they had Bob Le Monier running in a full ball game. Bob hasn't been playing regular since that contest when he was the only runner, that could move again the Sandburg team.

If the Mustangs win they will have to hold the high gear offense of the Eagles--this is not probable. For that Eagle line is not going to yield up a lot of yardage to a ground team. Evergreen moves the ball on the ground.

Sandburg will have a rough game, but Devine and his boys should take this one and move closer to the first title in the history of football at the school in Orland Park.

If Oak Lawn would tip the Rich Rocket--that would put the Eagles in sole possession of first place and set the stage for a real struggle with the Bremen Braves--the Eagles eastern rivals.

The game will be worth a trip to Evergreen Park to watch Sandburg should win, but it will not be a waltz. No...Sir.

Browsing Through The Cold Stove League

By Dean Dallas, Semmler Press Sports Editor

The race in the SW Suburban race has narrowed for the time being.

Carl Sandburg and Rich have emerged as the leading candidates for the SWS crown. Rich fumbled its way to a hard fought victory over Bremen, 19-18.

Carl Sandburg won in a rather convincing fashion over the Spartans of Oak Lawn, 13-6.

Both games were rather muddy affairs from which every way you wanted to view them.

However, this race is far from over. A four way tie could still be in a reality in the SWS. Oak Lawn meets Rich and the Braves take on the Eagle in the Season's finale.

These contests will be tremendous and could well shown an unprecedented four-way tie for the football title.

The Spartans and Rockets tangle this coming week-end. Rich should win the game, but those Spartans have shown the class to give a good team a going over on a given Saturday.

If the Spartans beat Rich--then everything will hang on the Sandburg-Bremen contest in the last game of the season at Midlothian.

Rich Norbut now looks like a cinch to win the SWS scoring title. He added a pair of touchdowns in the Rich battle last Saturday. Norbut definitely gets stronger with each successive game.

Yesterday, the SWS Cross-Country teams met at Lincoln-Way community high school to decided the championship in the Conference.

The Semmler Press will give full coverage to the Cross-Country finals in the next issue of the paper.

Lincoln-Way Battles Reavis Under Lights

Observers Give Rams Edge In Game Tomorrow Night

Reavis' Rams are a slight favorite to beat the crippled Lincoln-Way Knights under the lights at Reavis high school on tomorrow night.

Last week the Rams added more woe to a season which started very well for Evergreen Park in beating the Mustangs, 12-6.

The Knights were extended through out the entire game to come up with a 15-6, conquest of H-F.

Reavis beat the Vikings, 28-0 in the season's opener.

Lincoln-Way has had its troubles keeping the tam together due to the rash of four injuries to four starting players. Starting the year with 23 men showing up for varsity practice, four injuries are a great many.

To make matters worse--Lashmet has numerous fellows that he can only hope to get part-time to service from.

Howie Mann and Jerry Haeh-nlein are both rather sturdy at this late day in the season, and they should give the Rams plenty of trouble. For the other teams in the Conference has demonstrated that a couple of quick shooting backs to make it through the Reavis line.

"Skip" Kruzich will find the Reavis team vulnerable on passing--that is if the weather permits such a game.

If Bob LeMonier is back in full time service the Knights line of Seavertson, etc, will find itself with a run-away express to halt. Bob has shown tremendous ability to buck the line as well as give you the hi-and take it away on the broken field running. Bremen won't soon forget his sprint down the sidelines for 80 quick yards.

The Reavis passing attack is jelling and has been a potent weapon upon its last three ball games--Rich, Bremen, and then Evergreen Park.

Reavis will have the advantage of having played under the lights a few times this season. This will be the Knights first effort. The Rams rate a point or so better than the Knights. Lincoln-Way however needs that win to move up to the .500 mark in the SWS and make the season a winning one thus far.

Coach, Jonas Lashmet's comment of a .5-- season may yet be a reality and we see the first winning football season for the Knights. Awin would give the Lincoln-Way team a 4 and 3 mark with two games left on the card.

Dan Penn, one of L-Way early season casualties will be back in action for the Reavis game.

Knights Have 11 Home Tilts On Cage Card

This Week's Predictions
By PEEPIG PIGSKIN

For the first time we picked the entire total of three correct and raised our picking to a right of three correct and raised our picking to a 9 right and only 5 wrong situation.

This week. Carl Sandburg should continue its winning ways at Evergreen Park. It will not be a breather for the Eagles, but Evergreen has not won since the second game of the season.

Bremen will find the going easy against the Vikings of Homewood-Flossmoor at Homecoming time in Midlothian. Bremen by a couple of touchdowns.

Lincoln-Way at Reavis. Under the lights the Rams backyard. Knights injuries. We will have to string along with Reavis it would seem. Take a quick look again. Lashmet and his boys.....No, Reavis by a point.

CENTER SCHOOL NEWS

BY BEVERLY COUCH

The seventh and eighth grade art classes of Central School painted the windows of Tinley Park stores in their annual paintout on the morning of Wednesday, Oct. 28.

The theme of their pictures this year was "Ghosts in Our Community." The students work in teams both in the designing of the window-picture, and in its application to the window in water-soluble paint. Only the windows of merchants so desiring are painted. The Recreation Commission awards prizes for the best windows which are chosen by competent judges. The winning windows and their artists are announced and the prize awarded at the Halloween party of Memorial Park.

SOFTBALL TEAMS

During the first two months of school the seventh and eighth grade boys, who were interested, and qualified, played on the school softball team which is a member of the South Suburban Elementary Athletic Association. Six schools are in the league. They are Homewood-Flossmoor, Blue Island, West Harvey, Steger and Tinley Park.

The final heavyweight standings were: West Harvey - 5-0; Blue Island - 3-2; Homewood - 3-2; Tinley Park - 2-3; Flossmoor - 2-3; Steger - 0-5.

Tinley's heavyweight scores were: Tinley 23, Steger 21; Tinley 26, Blue Island 25.

HALLOWEEN PARTIES

The Halloween Party this year will be the same as last year, with one exception. In the past the students wishing wearing costumes would go to the gym, by grades, and were judged for the prettiest, funniest and most original. This year, however, there will be a change in the judging of the costumes. The fourth, fifth and sixth grade students will be judged in their own rooms. The three judges are teachers, chosen by the student council members. They are Mrs. Zahler, Lynden De Young and Mrs. Helen Sandidge.

The seventh and eighth grade judging will be held in the gym. They will also have dancing and games in the gym before returning to their homerooms for refreshments served by the room mothers.

BIRLS INTRAMURAL CHAMPIONS

BY KATHY HANULEC

The "Personalities" took first place in the first double elimination tournament this fall. The "Wee Winkies" were second, and the "Les Petites" were third. During this tournament, if any team lost two games, they were eliminated. The girls are now in a "round robin," in which each team will play every other team.

The members of the Personalities are; Pat Hunt - Captain, Diane Zawadzki - Co-Captain, Renee Zoberis, Carol Roberts, Shirley Scott, Marlene Moore, Donna Jensen, Judy Ludewig, Janet Suhs, Beth Bingar, Pamela Skwira, Sally Dykstron, Carolyn Howie, and Joyce Steinmetz.

The captains of the "Wee Winkies," and the "Les Petites," are, for the "Winkies" Beverly Couch Captain, and Nancy Pitus co-captain. The "Les Petites" are Gay Ann Curry Captain, and Phyllis Johnson co-captain.

METHODIST NEWS

After the regular Sunday evening meeting of Junior MYF, the group enjoyed a treasure and scavenger hunt. Mr. and Mrs. John Pettersen are the sponsors. There were 27 present. Refreshments were served.

The senior MYF who attended the Foods for the World festival in the Frankfort Methodist church Sunday night, received an award for having one of the best booths at the festival. It contained food packaged, which they had collected in Mokena, and was taken with the other gifts to Methodist institutions for children.

Two infants were baptized by the Rev. Robert King during the Sunday morning service. They were the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Teague, name given was Sheryl Kaye. Sponsors were Miss Joan Teague and Orland Barnes. Also baptized was the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Sievert, who was named Lori Ann. Sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Willard Barenz. A family dinner was served following the service in the home of the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cooper. Present beside the above mentioned were, the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sievert, New Lenox and the Rev. Robert King.

Next Sunday being the celebration of the Reformation in all Protestant churches, the Mokena church will observe the occasion with appropriate services in the morning. The Rev. King also has announced for three consecutive Wednesday evenings, he will conduct a special study class on the theme, "I Believe." Every adult is cordially invited to attend and enjoy the addition knowledge which the study affords. The classes started this Wednesday evening Nov. 3 at 7:30 o'clock when the special program was presented under the auspices of the WSCS with Mrs. William Bradley Jr., Mrs. John Pettersen and Mrs. Durward Fant in charge. The next meeting will be held Nov. 10 and 17.

Mrs. Henry Winke, of Lockport, mother of Mrs. James Marti and Mrs. Cele Newton of Mokena, underwent surgery in St. Joseph's hospital, Joliet.

Mrs. Margaret M. Semmler received word of the death of her cousin, Mrs. Clara Semmler Richartz, 94, in South Bend, Ind. Thursday evening. She had been confined a stroke. Mrs. Richartz's sister, Mrs. Bertha Rossman, died in her home the Monday previous on her 90th birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Evert Benson returned last week from a 3,000 mile vacation trip. On the two-week trip they visited Shenandoah Valley, Washington D.C., Jamestown, and Yorktown, visiting friends and relatives en route.

The annual Frankfort-Mokena home Bureau picnic was held Sunday, Oct. 18 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Elsner. A potluck dinner was served at noon and later games were played and social afternoon followed.

Members of St. John's Church of Christ Women's Guild and Friendly Circle are planning their annual Christmas bazaar and luncheon to be held in Fellowship hall Wednesday, Nov. 4.

Luncheon will be served at 12 noon. Two menus are being planned to accommodate both adults and children. Serving of school children will begin at 11:30 a.m.

Two brothers, eight year old Forest and 10 year old Brian Wright flew here a week ago Friday from their home in Overland Park, Kans., to spend a few days with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hubler. The following Sunday they accompanied their grandparents on a tour of Mark Twain's home at Hannibal, Mo., and thru the beautiful Ozarks. They arrived at their home in Overland Park a few days later when they were surprised to learn they had a baby sister who was born Oct. 19, in the hospital in Kansas City, Mo. Their sister has been named Tamara Lynn and weighed eight pounds four ounces. The Hublers were delighted with their first grand daughter. They arrived home in Mokena Saturday night. Enroute home they visited her niece, Mr. and Mrs. David Olson and their new baby boy in Decatur, Ill.

Register To Compete In National Merit Scholarship

All 1961 graduates who wish to enter the 1960-61 National Merit Scholarship competition should register now at the school office, A. Hunter Chapman, principal, announced today. The National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test will be given at 9 a.m. Tuesday, March 8, 1960 (or Saturday, March 19, 1960.)

To be eligible for the test, Lincoln-Way High school students must be second semester juniors or first semester seniors at the time of the examination. Students must pay a $1 fee on the day of the test. Any interested student who is unable to pay the fee should consult Mr. Chapman.

The tests are given each year by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation as part of the nation's largest independent scholarship program. Last year 550,000 students competed in 14,500 schools for more than $3.5 million worth of 4-year scholarships.

Awards are granted on the basis of intellectual merit, but student financial needs determine the size of individual stipends, which are renewable each year without further testing.

The NMS exam, administered by Science Research Associates of Chicago, also is valuable to students for selecting their careers or planning their courses in high school and college, A. Hunter Chapman observed.

After the test, each participating student will receive an interpretive folder that reports individual test results for comparison with scores of high school students across the country. Thus, A. Hunter Chapman said, students may learn their educational strengths and weaknesses—whether or not they plan to attend college.

In addition to the NMSC grants established in 1955 by the Ford Foundation and the Carnegie Corporation of New York, about 90 industrial corporations, foundations, and individuals give scholarships through NMSC.

Death Claims Miss McClaughry, Retired Teacher

Miss Catherine McClaughry, retired teacher, died Tuesday, Oct. 20 in her home in Beverly Hills. She was born Dec. 6, 1869 at Palos Park and had resided there her whole life with the exception until five years ago when the home was sold and she moved to Beverly.

She began teaching in 1889 in a one room school in Palos Township the McClaughry school, named for her family. She became assistant superintendent for southern suburban schools in Cook county in 1915 and held that position until 1942 when she retired.

Surviving are two nephews, James L. and Richard S. McClaughry. Funeral services were held Friday, Oct. 23, at 1:30 p.m. at the chapel at 13050 Greenwood in Blue Island. Burial was in Mount Greenwood cemetery.

Orland PTA Plans Book Fair In School Gym

Over 1,000 different books will be displayed for public perusal at the Orland Park elementary school gymnasium Wednesday, Nov. 4, by the Orland Parent-Teachers Association. Hours are from 3:15 to 5:15 and 7:00 to 10:00 p.m.

More good books in every home is the aim of the PTA in sponsoring the Book Fair.

Books range in interest from per-school to adults. Color guides and book lists will be used to facilitate shopping. The public is invited.

country fair, prizes will be awarded in the various booths.

A large crowd always attends this annual fun night. Besides games for children, adults too will join in the spirit of merry-making and there will be many attractions, including a bakery store, witches booth, and cake walk.

Parents help too by donating goods and selling them throughout the evening.

Included in the 20 varieties of exhibits are bake goods and many other articles made by students. An impartial group of 15 women judges will decide the prize winners and ribbons will be awarded.

A cooperative project, with teachers working after school and parents and children assisting, the idea of the Fair and Fun Night which initiated at the Frankfort school, has spread and almost every community now holds a similar affair, usually sponsored by Parent-Teacher associations, to raise funds for schools.

Miss Viola Lankenau who has watched the program grow each year since it first started, started her teaching career 48 years ago, 42 of these years at the Frankfort school, the last 18 years as principal. It is a pleasant time of reunion for her as she greets all of her students, many of them parents and grandparents of present pupils. Miss Lankenau, who plans to retire next Spring, will leave a gap which will be difficult to fill.

GREEN GARDEN

The room mothers of the Green Garden grade school are giving a Halloween party at noon Friday, Oct. 30. It will start with a luncheon for all the school children and teachers at the town hall, and teachers at the town hall. Games will follow and a costume party and parade of costumed children will be held for mothers and the pre-school children.

MARLEY

A Halloween party will be held at the Marley church at 7:30 p.m. Friday, Oct. 30. Everyone is invited and requested to come in costume. The Do-Unto-Others club will serve refreshments.

LINCOLN ESTATES

The Auxiliary Police of Will County is sponsoring a party for the children in the area at the Ann Rutledge school, Saturday, Oct. 31.

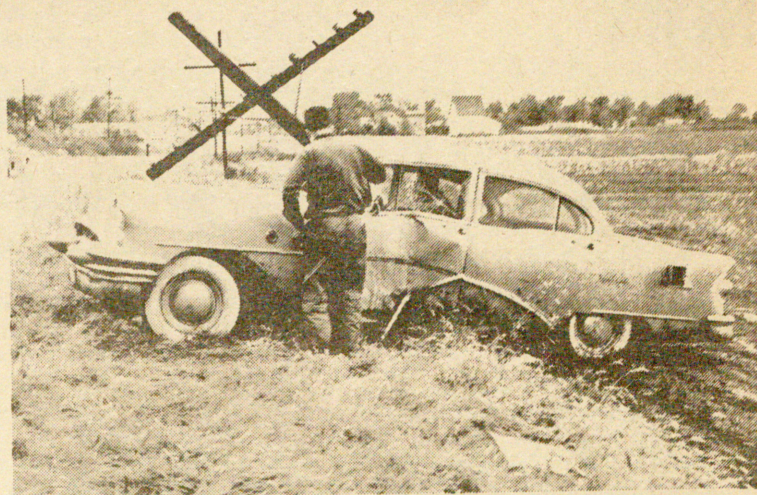

Palos-Orland YMCA Program Gets Underway

The fall programs of the Palos-Orland YMCA got underway with Biddy basketball for boys between 9 and 12 years of age on Tuesday evening Oct. 27. The boys reported to the Orland Park Elementary school at 6:30 p.m. Uniforms and equipment is furnished by the YMCA. The boys are covered by accident insurance while participating in the program.

Ballet and acrobatic classes are held Saturday mornings at the Orland Public School, 9 a.m. for 4, 5 and 6-year olds; 10 a.m. for 7 thru 10 year olds, and 11 a.m. for 11, 12 and 13 years and over.

Adult social dance classes will begin Nov. 10, at the Orland Public school. Time will be from 8:30 to 10:30 p.m. The instructor will be Nick Angelo.

To register, call the Palos-Orland YMCA at Gibson 8-3888 on weekdays between 9 a.m. and 12 noon.

DRIVER INJURED--The driver in this instance was James F. Exell, 38, Rt. 1, New Lenox, and he is in Silver Cross hospital with a broken hip. The accident occurred last Friday afternoon, Oct. 23, about 3:30 o'clock on U. S. 30 just east of Lincoln Estates. The car skidded off the pavement and struck a utility company pole, shearing it off. Greater Efficiency

More Vocational Aid In L-W Business Courses

The business education department at Lincoln-Way community high school has revised its entire program with the purpose of more direct vocational help in mind.

Paul Thomas, head of the business education department, stated: "More of our graduates are getting jobs in offices in Joliet and Chicago than ever before. We have revised our program to insure the better jobs for our students."

Some courses were broken down to give more time for specific operations that would give the proper amount of learning to step into an office.

Shorthand II was added to increase the efficiency and the speed. Here, Thomas feels is a shortcoming of many education departments.

Many of the students in the department get on-the-job-training by working in the office of the high school in "real life" situations. Others have jobs as secretaries to some of the teachers.

In a recent educational magazine, this type of education has been hailed an important step forward. Lincoln-Way has been using its students in this fashion for three years.

The department does a great deal of special "jobs" for the school. Recently, the department was responsible for sending out the invitations to alumni for the Homecoming activities. Many other projects like this one are completed by the business education classes.

It is the second largest department in the high school. The only larger department is English. English is a required course at every high school.

In all of the typing classes the students get work on electric typewriters. Few high schools have this kind of rotating system that gives a student practice on the conventional and the EBM electric, even in the Typing I.

Mr. Thomas is teaching typing and shorthand in the evening adult education classes. The business education department has been a part of the evening classes since the beginning of adult education.

A part of the practical arts for Lincoln-Way freshman is a six week course in typing.

The business education had one of the biggest classes under one teacher. In fact, in all of the typing classes 39 students are taught at one time. This is considered by many schools to be just an experiment.

Business English is one of the new courses being offered. It is a course for seniors and stresses the importance of spelling and control of the words used in business.

The other new courses are centered in two areas: one is office machines, and the other is known as office practice.

Office machines is one semester course that deals only with machines. Students will become familiar with a high degree to skill on the comptometer, ten-keep adding machine, rotary calculators, mimeograph, spirit duplicator, dictaphone, and electric typewriter.

Office practice is also a one semester course. The time is spent in production typing, filing, office shortcuts and procedures. This is only for seniors.

Shorthand II reviews the theory of shorthand. All of the time will be devoted to increasing the students speed and transcription rate. Correct usage of grammar, spelling, and punctuation will be stressed. To get credit the student will be required to take 90 words a minute and transcribe with 95 per cent accuracy.

A new gas range has been developed in which there is no exposed flame. The gas is burned in a central burner and air at 1,000 degrees F. is conducted to plates on the top of the range or to the oven.

Fortnightly Group Gets Bids To Frolic

Bids to the Fortnightly have been mailed to children in the 7th grade of the public schools in the Palos-Orland area. Only 8th grade students who were members last year receive invitations.

The Fortnightly is a not-for-profit association which sponsors social affairs every other Saturday in the Palos East Elementary school, from 1 to 3 p.m.

Membership is limited to students of 7th and 8th grades.

The children are taught dancing by an experienced teacher and the social graces.

The first class of the season will be the Football Frolic on Nov. 14. Participation is by bids only on a first return basis. Other social events are planned for the season. A nominal sum is charged to cover the expense of the program.

All of the affairs are under adult supervision and mothers comprise the executive board.

Children in 7th grade area schools who have not received bids and wish to participate in the program, should contact either Mrs. Albert Swayne at Gibson 8-1009 or Mrs. John Ladick at Gibson 8-1517.

IS THE BUSTLE COMING BACK? --Well, there is a hint of it in this cotton organdy ball gown worn by Matilda Berry, the 1959 Maid of Cotton, that carries one back thru the pages of the Godey's Lady Book to around 1870 when the bustle was in its heyday, as illustrated in the picture of the woman in black. The bustle was revived last year --in moderation--and is still exerting an influence in some styles.

Demonstrate Yule Articles At Orland Woman's Club

An interesting demonstration of easy to make Christmas decorations and other articles was given at the Oct. 21 meeting of the Orland Park Woman's Club.

The instructor, Mrs. T. W. Shelley, was introduced by program chairman, Mrs. Fred Blackstone. Among the many items demonstrated, were doll favors from a clothespin and wooden spoon, table centers, wreaths, party ideas and decorations, trees and candle holders, using empty fruit juice cans, tuna fish cans, egg cartons, aluminum pie plates, and many other items usually discarded.

Mrs. Karl Ekberg presided in the absence of Mrs. Chester Williams. There were 36 members and guests at the meeting held at the Community Center Foundation.

A report on the card party and social held in September was given by Mrs. Harry Pihl, who also read the budget for 1959-1960 and explained the various items, copies of which were distributed to members.

Club members will visit the Park Ridge School for Girls at 1 p.m., Nov. 19. The school will benefit from the Silver Tea held by the club early in September.

Mrs. Lucious Patton, literature chairman for the Third District IFWC, and a member of the club, requested members enter the annual literature contest and write some poetry.

Mrs. Lester Sayers, health, welfare, and mental health chairman, requested contributions of jewelry, purses and handkerchiefs from members for the Christmas party at Manteno State hospital.

Refreshments were served by Mesdames Karl Ekberg, Stately Ray, Ray Barry and George Gee.

Mrs. Adele Cooper and Mrs. Karl Ekberg, past presidents of the Orland Park Woman's club, attended the former presidents club of Third District luncheon Thursday, Oct. 22, in the Lamp Lighter restaurant. Mrs. Fred Blackstone was a guest of Mrs. Ekberg. A program followed the luncheon and meeting.

"The love of money may be the root of all evil, but let's face it--we're all evil minded." --J. C. Salak.

3rd District Juniors IFWC Plan Luncheon

The annual Fall luncheon to be presented by the Third District Juniors of the Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs will be held at the Beverly Woods restaurant Nov. 14. Mrs. George Rohde, junior director, will introduce the guests who are; former district junior directors and third district president, Mrs. Arthur New house, who will present a musical program. Mrs. L. A. Orton, associate director, requests that all reservations be in by Nov. 7th. Hostess clubs are Evergreen Park, Morgan Park, Oak Lawn, Mt. Greenwood, and Dolton-Riverdale.

Features Words Of George Washington

The first of the 4-cent "Credo" stamps, featuring words of George Washington, "Observe good faith and justice toward all nations," will be first placed on sale at Mount Vernon, Virginia during January of 1960, according to Lester E. Brown, New Lenox postmaster. Appropriate ceremonies will be held at Mount Vernon the day the new stamp goes on sale.

The stamp, measuring 0.84 by 1.44 inches, will be printed on the Giori press in red and blue on white. It will be arranged horizontally and issued in sheets of 50.

The pictorial portion of the first day cancellation will feature a view of "Mount Vernon", the home of The 15-cent James Buchanan regular postage stamp of the 1938 "Presidential" series, and the $5 postage due of 1930 were removed from sale at the Philatelic Sales Agency in Washington, D. C. at the close of business Friday, October 9, 1959.

On or about Oct. 25, 1959, Ozark Airlines, Inc. will inaugurate new airmail service at Austin-Albert Lea, Minn. Official cachets will be furnished for the post offices at Austin and Albert Lea. Also, on or about Nov. 1, 1959, American Airlines, Inc., will inaugurate jet airmail service between New York and San Francisco. Official cachets will be furnished for the post offices at each of these cities and for the airport mail facilities at San Francisco and New York International Airport (Idlewild).

An official cachet will also be furnished for the United Nations, covers to receive this cachet must be sent to the Chief, United Nations Postal Administration, United Nations 17, New York, with a request that they be sent on the initial flight from New York only.

Such covers will bear the United Nations Post Office Station postmark. Covers should be accompanied by a money order to cover the cost of the stamps to be affixed.

Auxiliary Police Holding Halloween Party Oct. 31

BY MRS. EMIL WILLE
Frankfort 3161

The Auxiliary Police of Will County will sponsor a Halloween party for the children of the area at the Ann Rutledge school, starting at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 31. It is planned to make this an annual event.

There will be games for the children under the direction and supervision of Calvert Heath Jr. and Donald Ball. Prizes will be awarded for the best costumes. Refreshments will be on hand.

More volunteers to help with the party will be welcomed to make it a success.

The Auxiliary police will be patrolling the area all this week to prevent vandalism.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wheeler and Mr. and Mrs. Jay Bissell spent last weekend taking in the Autumn sights at Apple River Canyon and other parts of Northern Ill.

Out of town guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wheeler were her brother Philip Hemingway of Detroit, Mich. and Mrs. Betty Row of Minocqua, Wisc.

Guests in the home of Benjamin Frankenberg Sr., were his children Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Frankenberg Jr., and children and Alyce Hennan of Evergreen Park. The elder Mr. Frankenberg celebrated his 74th birthday. Another son William and family are living with him.

Mrs. Martha Martin of Chicago spent three days in the home of her granddaughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Holzinger. While she was here Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Holzinger and the latter's mother, Mrs. Helen Sandiford of Joliet enjoyed lunch at Howard Johnsons restaurant in Joliet.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Holzinger of Lincoln Estates, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Gelin, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Dooley of Chicago Heights, and Mrs. Gloria Ray of Tinley Park had dinner at Mickleberry's in Park Forest Saturday evening. Later they enjoyed the show put on by the Beachcombers.

Consumers of farm produced food and fiber reap many rewards from advancing agricultural technology. The fact that American agriculture has produced certain crops in excess quantities draws a lot of attention. There is considerable misunderstanding about public programs which support agriculture. An often repeated question is, "Why support agricultural research when we have excessive agricultural production right now." True D. Morse, undersecretary of agriculture, in an article in MON-

WILLIAM F. WHITE-SIDE
Cook County Assoc. Farm Adviser
SANTO magazine, offers clear explanations to this and related questions.
"A great deal of talk is heard today about the farm surplus problem, and it is, indeed, a very real one in a few crops. But I want to direct your thinking to another kind of surplus which exists on the farms of America. This is the surplus of agricultural problems that demand scientific research.
"This surplus, too, is very real. There are always more agricultural research problems than there are time and funds for solving them but this kind of surplus is a healthy one for our nation, because it means that more and more scientific knowledge will be poured in to help fill the gap.

MORE NOURISHING
"Today's farm products are healthier, more nourishing, and more palatable than ever before. Apples are rounder, potatoes whiter, and beef tenderer than at any time in the past. Whether the house wife shops at a supermarket or a country store, she will find fruits and vegetables which are good to look at, uniformly high in quality, free from worms, bugs and discolorations, and full of good eating.
"These vastly improved foods cost less in terms of wage earners' total dollars than ever before.
"This is what farm progress means to the consumer—not just bounty, but even more important quality.

".....A good many people think that agricultural research has but one aim: to make two blades of grass grow where one grew before --to help farmers get the highest yield possible from an acre of land. Actually, agricultural research goes much deeper than that.
"One of our most urgent research needs is to find new uses and expanded markets for farm products. This requires utilization and marketing research. It will enable farmers to more fully utilize the productive capacity of their farms and ranches and to operate more profitably.

AIMS OF RESEARCH
"Other aims of research can be stated in part as follows:

1. To improve crops and animals so that they are more resistant to diseases, pests and adverse environments;
2. To make them more adaptable to mechanized production; and
3. To assure better and more uniform quality of crops and animals.
4. To improve procedures for controlling diseases and pests thru chemical, physical and biological means.
5. To improve devices and practices for soil and water management, and to improve machinery for the production, processing and handling of farm products.

"All of these aims can be translated into specifics. They go far beyond presenting the shopper with attractive wholesome food. They enter into marketing, industrial uses for farm products, and every phase of American business.
".....Scientific research is a primary key to the future of American agriculture. Just as the research of 10 and 20 years ago has given us world leadership in agriculture today, so will today's research help us maintain this leadership in the years ahead.

FACE BIG JOB

"It has been reliably estimated that our population in the United States may reach 230 million by 1975. Farmers would have to produce 35 to 40 percent more food, feed, and fiber than they do today. And as farm population increases in the United States and around the world, the job for agriculture research grows bigger and bigger.

"Yes, there is a surplus—but it is primarily in three crops for which laws need to be changed. Let us not get diverted from emphasizing the research challenge—a challenge which will continue to enrich us all in the years ahead.
"To the extent that we meet this research challenge we will build an ever stronger America for the future."

Record Amount Of Water Used In Tinley Park

A record amount of water was used by Tinley Park users during the long dry summer season and will be reflected in water bills due Oct. 15. However, according to the village collector, Mrs. Ruth McBurney, bills will be a week late.
The bills for the current period indicates the high consumption of water by individual homeowners to be the highest on record. In all six water routes in the village there was a substantial increase in the amount of water usually consumed.

Save 2 Million Lives In 20 Years

The lives of two million Americans have been saved by the sulfa and antibiotic drugs in the last 20 years, a spokesman for the pharmaceutical industry told the Tinley Park Lions club Wednesday.

The speaker, P. Iampietro, of American Cyanamid Company's Lederle Laboratories, said new drugs save both lives and dollars. As an example, he cited the present day treatment of pneumonia.

"With today's antibiotics, death from pneumonia is rare," he explained. "And the average cost of treating the illness is less than one hundred dollars compared with about a thousand dollars prior to antibiotics," he said.

He also pointed out that in many cases drugs even avert the need for surgery. "Antibiotics have virtually eliminated mastoiditis, the painful ear infection which only a few years ago almost invariably resulted in surgery and sometimes loss of hearing."

To develop new drugs, the speaker said, the drug industry spends millions of dollars for research. In 1958 industry research expenditures amounted to $170,000,000 and this year research spending will total $190,000,000.

"No other industry spends such a big part of its income on research," the speaker said. "This is 7% of sales compared with 2% for industry in general." He pointed out that the United States now leads the world in new drug development, largely as a result of pharmaceutical industry research.

He illustrated by saying that out of every two thousand compounds developed by industry, only an average of three become useful compounds.

Despite rising research and other costs, he said that "the price index of prescription drugs has risen only 37% over the past 20 years. This compares with a 96% increase for all items on the cost of living index. In fact, the price trend of major new drugs such as antibiotics and hormones has been generally downward." Mr. Iampietro said newer drugs have been an important factor in increased life expectancy which is about 70 years today in the United States, compared with 49 years in 1900.

An unusual aspect of added life he said, has been the decrease in the number of orphans and the increase in the number of people over 100 years of age.

"Orphan children today are rare," he said. "A generation ago there were at least 800,000 orphans with both parents dead. Today there are fewer than 90,000 in a population much larger. We also have in America a growing

Vote Canvass

Confirms Defeat Of Annexation

(CNS) Failure of the movement to annex Bremen Heights to the village of Midlothian has been confirmed in a County court canvass of votes cast at a special election October 13.

The official tally in the canvass listed 166 votes for annexation and 237 votes against bringing the unincorporated territory into Midlothian. There also were 110 defective or objected to ballots cast.

Counting these, the total vote was 513.

Voter approval at the election would have permitted Midlothian to annex the territory.

The annexation issue is highly controversial in the unincorporated community. Also, there are factions favoring annexation to Crestwood or Oak Forest.

Home owners in Bremen Heights had held conferences with officials of the three villages for more than a year before the October election.

number of people 100 years old. At last count there were seven thousand."

The speaker outlined the development of the modern drug industry and also traced briefly man's quest for drug resources throughout the ages.

Remove More Equipment from Lewis Park

To further satisfy a resident whose home adjoins the Lewis Memorial park in the Parkside area of Tinley Park, the village board agreed at last week's meeting to remove the monkey bars in the park. Previously the merry-go-round was removed. With this further action, the remainder of the playground equipment will be located at least 60 feet from the residence.

The board also decided to erect a fence around the park.

Pick Elevators to Take Crop Gifts in Will Co

Elevators at seven locations in Will county are preparing to store corn to be collected in the forthcoming Christian Rural Overseas program, Dick Tyler, commodity chairman announced today. The November drive to pile up donations of three carloads of corn is under the general direction of James Tilley of Mokena.

Volunteers will be named soon to aid township chairmen in the two day campaign Nov. 16 and 17.

Tyler said that elevators ready to accept contributions of corn are Andres-Wilton, Frankfort, Joliet Manhattan, New Lenox, Plainfield and Tyler Grain company's elevator at Elwood.

Reports from headquarters of CROP, the collection agency which serves 33 Protestant and Eastern Orthodox groups working together in Church World Service tasks, show a picture of need so severe as to be almost unbelievable to people living in a land of plenty. In some parts of the world the refugees outnumber the local population. In South Korea average citizens must spend 57 per cent of their incomes for food. In East Jordan a once-wealthy tribe of Bedouins exists on CROP gift supplies following a six-year drought which stripped them of their grazing animals.

Natural disasters, such as the typhoons in Japan add to the number of the homeless and hungry. Fighting in Laos makes the refugee problem even more severe.

Will county farm families expect to do a small part of the job of relieving severe want when they load gifts of corn into the trucks of volunteer workers next month for storage in local elevators.

Next step in the complicated process of getting the food to the people who need it is shipment of the local gifts to a processing plant and then overseas to distribution points in the areas where people go hungry almost every day.

Cacti Make Good Additions to House Plant Collections

BY JAMES FIZZELL
Assistant Farm Adviser

Cactus plants make a good addition to the house plants usually grown. With a minimum of care they will grow easily and many will even bloom. Among the numerous species will be found plants of small size and contrasting form well suited for home use.

Cactus plants require a soil that is not too rich. A good mixture consists of 1/3 good friable loam 1/3 sharp sand, and 1/3 peat moss, thoroughly mixed. To each 12 qt. pailful of this mixture add 1/2 cupful of bonemeal. It is essential that cactus plants have perfect drainage. Therefore, 1/4 of the depth of the receptacles in which they are potted should be filled with broken flower pots or gravel. Since the root systems of these plants are rather small, it is advisable to select receptacles that are not too large.

LIKE SAND

In potting, firm the soil well around the roots, and water the plants thoroughly, being sure that the water penetrates all of the soil. No absolute guide can be given for future waterings. Most of the trouble with cactus in the home comes from over watering during the normal winter dormant period. The plants, whatever their size, need only enough water to keep them from shriveling. They will do well in ordinary room temperature, provided there is ample light. They will require more water if the room is very hot and dry than if it is cool and moist. Evaporating pans attached to radiators will supply some atmospheric moisture, which is beneficial to all house plants. If potted in the recommended soil mixture with drainage as suggested, the plants should not require watering more than once a week.

During the summer months cactus plants may be plunged, in their pots, outdoors in a bed of sand or ashes over good drainage. In the early fall it will be necessary to bring them indoors.

SPECIAL FOR CHRISTMAS

Christmas cactus requires some what more fertile soil, such as a mixture of two parts good friable loam, 1 part sharp sand, 1 part peat moss, and 1/2 part well rotted cow manure. To each bushel of soil, add one 5 inch potful of bone meal and mix thoroughly.

This cactus require more water than the others and should be grown in full sunlight in a window sill or in a hanging basket. However, during winter, from November on, it should be kept a little dry. It normally flowers during the Thanksgiving and Christmas season. If kept too wet during this period, it will not bloom as well. This plant is usually propagated by grafting.

During the summer months, it may be plunged, in the pot, outdoors like other cactus except that it should be kept in partial shade. It too will need to be brought indoors in the early fall.

Christmas cactus is benefited by a light feeding of complete liquid fertilizer every 10-14 days during summer months.

BREMEN BEAT

Ray Ponds and his seven piece orchestra will play at the Homecoming Dance Saturday, October 31, from 8 to 11 p.m. in the Bremen Community High School gymnasium.

Styled along the lines of the Glenn Miller orchestra, this group is rated among the most popular "big" orchestras in the school field.

Tickets at one dollar a person will be for sale to students at the high school, and alumni and guests may purchase them at the door.

An all-school pep rally at 2:45 pm. Friday, October 30, will set off the opening guns for the celebration, and a double header football contest between Bremen and Homewood-Flossmoor High School beginning Saturday, October 31, at 12 noon will highlight the occasion.

Bremen alumni are welcome to attend the homecoming festivities. Glenn Starnier, Bremen principal, is coordinator of the affair.

Forty students have been appointed to the staff of the Bremen Echo, bi-weekly newspaper published at Bremen.

Alice Winegarner is editor-in-chief, with Donna Bonaker as business manager. Peggy Donahue is circulation manager. Club editor is Peggy Wilborn, and copy editor is Joyce Henderson. The art editorship is in charge of Sharon Van Dyke, and Mike Pope holds the post of sports editor.

Reporters on the staff are Britta Ahern, Barbara Brown, Julieanna Carlson, Karen Dugman, Nadine Doerr, Peggie Donahue, Jill Duffy, Carol Gillaspie, Sue Holub, Carol Janas, Betty Johnson, Clark Lindsay, Dot Metzger, Peggy Miller, George Rieke, John Thiel, Sue Watkins, Sharon Tocco, Nancy Malone, Patt Robertson, Wayne Uhle, Marilyn Gallo, Ted Anthony, Judy Sasso, Diana Huntley, Charles Har-ison, Marsha Schector, Michele Whitney, Karen Innenback, and Barbara Scheeter.

Judy Pagen, Esther Siville, and Sharon Jochum handle the typing assignments.

Fleanor Leith and Katherine Nolan are faculty sponsors.

The first issue of the school paper made its appearance in offset type. "A large sale of individual copies was gratifying," Alice Winegarner, editor, said.

4-H NEWS

RICH BREMEN

A meeting of the Rich Bremen 4-H club was held Oct. 23 at the Tinley Park Farm Bureau hall.

The meeting was opened with the pledge to the American flag. Gilbert Hires was accepted as a new member.

Edwin Gierke gave a talk on dairy feeding.

The meeting was closed with the 4-H pledge and refreshments were served by Dennis and Darold Schmeckpeper.

After the meeting a game was played under the direction of William Stelter, recreational chairman.

The next meeting is scheduled for Nov. 27.

The curriculum is geared for automobile mechanics who want to concentrate on carburetors, ignition and to be trained to diagnose with the use of the latest modern equipment.

The school is accepting registrations now for the next classes beginning, days, Nov. 9 nights Feb. 1, 1960.

Willy's school was founded in 1945 and graduates are in every state, including Cuba, Canada, and Hawaii.

Willy is the author of "HOTTER SPARKS" and has been invited to speak to such groups as the American Society of Automotive Testers.

T. W. Bonnevier, 7800 West 143rd St., recently was chairman of the Direct Costing sessions at the Regional Accounting Conference held in Grand Rapids, Mich. The conference was sponsored by the National Association of Accountants, and 24 chapters from Midwest industrial areas participated.

Two days of technical sessions were devoted to cost reduction methods, value analysis, direct costing techniques, budgeting, control of marketing costs, and other subjects of timely interest in our present economy.

Bonnevier is a past president of the Chicago Chapter of the N.A.A., has been a member of the national board of directors for nine years, and is currently the chairman of the association's Research planning committee. He is assistant vice president and controller of the Acme Steel Company.

J. Harris Ward to Head Power Company Nov. 1

J. Harris Ward has been elected president of Commonwealth Edison Co. effective Nov. 1, succeeding John W. Evers, who will retire on Oct. 31.

Announcement of Mr. Ward's elevation from executive vice president to president was made by Willis Gale, Edison chairman, following a meeting of the company's board of directors. The office of executive vice president will be discontinued.

Mr. Ward, who is 51 years old, is a native of Kansas City, Mo. He came to Edison in 1938 as an investment analyst. He was elected secretary of the company in 1948, vice president in 1951, vice president and treasurer in 1952 and executive vice president in 1955. He has been a director since 1957.

Under the utility's executive rotation policy, Mr. Ward has served as financial vice president, vice president in charge of commercial activities and also has been in charge of operating, engineering and construction activities.

Mr. Ward is a director of International Harvester Co. The Northern Trust Co. and a trustee of the University of Chicago. He has been active in civic and welfare activities and is the current president of the Community Fund of Chicago.

Mr. Ward is a graduate of Harvard university with a master's degree in business administration. Before joining Edison he worked for the National Recovery Administration in Washington and Brown Bros. Harriman & Co. in New York City.

During World War II Mr. Ward served in various capacities with the War Production Board and subsequently with the army in the European theatre with the strategic bombing survey. He was awarded the Bronze Star.

Mr. Evers' retirement follows 46 years of service with the utility he joined as a clerk in 1913. He was elected assistant treasurer in 1922 and progressed thru various positions to executive vice president in 1951 and president in 1953.

Mr. Evers will continue to serve as a director of Commonwealth Edison. He is also a director of Jewel Tea Co. Insurance Exchange Building Corp. Seaboard Finance Corp. and the National Boulevard Bank of Chicago.

Mr. Evers has been active in Chicago civic and charitable affairs for many years. He is a director of the Rehabilitation Institute of Chicago and has been, and plans to continue to be, very active in its program. He is also a trustee of the Community Fund Red Cross Joint Appeal of Chicago, a director of the Hospital Planning Council for Metropolitan Chicago and a member of the Metropolitan Fair and Exposition Authority Board of Chicago.

Commenting on Mr. Evers' retirement, Mr. Gale said:

"We in the Edison organization are all proud of the fine example John Evers has set in his devotion to this company and in his role as civic leader. I am pleased that we will continue to have the benefit of his broad experience as a member of the Edison board of directors."

U. I. Manual

Describes Road Building, Repair

The first comprehensive manual for building and maintaining the 100,000 miles of gravel or crushed-stone roads in Illinois has been compiled by the University of Illinois.

"Manual of Current Practice for Design, Construction, and Maintenance of Soil-Aggregate Roads" in 146 pages covers materials, soils, construction, maintenance, design and testing. It was prepared by Prof. Eugene Y. Huang of the civil engineering department.

The investigation was sponsored by the University's Engineering Experiment Station in cooperation with the Illinois State Division of Highways and U. S. Bureau of Roads.
